THE Bank of Versailles

VERSAILLES, MO.

This is a State Bank, conducted in accordance with the Banking Laws of the State of Missouri.

The State does not guarantee any depositors against loss, neither does the National Government guarantee depositors against loss, nor stand guard over their deposits in National banks.

Both State and National Governments make examinations as to solvency, and to see that the Banking Laws are being complied with.

This Bank tenders to its customers all accommodations consistent with safe Banking; and we solicit deposits on the ground of the prudence of its management, and our ability to pay our depositors on demand, in evidence of which we invite attention to our large Surplus and strong cash reserve:

CONDITION OF THE BANK
MARCH 6TH, 1906.

Capital fully paid up, $30,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits, $80,540.00

Cash and Sight Exchange, $5,848.00
Loans, $84,541.03
Deposits, $204,344.95

We further protect our depositors by carrying ample insurance against Burglary and Robbery.

Business Solicited.
